

CHRISTIAN GARNETT

Associate

Christian is an associate in Hancock Daniel's Richmond office, where he advises clients on corporate transactions and regulatory compliance matters. Christian appreciates the need to understand healthcare clients' goals within the regulatory context and is committed to counseling clients across a wide range of legal issues. "I am eager to help clients navigate the complex, ever-changing landscape of healthcare law and tailor solutions to their specific needs."

Before joining Hancock Daniel as an associate, Christian received his J.D. from Washington & Lee University School of Law, where he served as a Lead Articles Editor for the Washington & Lee Law Review. While in law school, he began his career with Hancock Daniel as a summer associate.
