

MEGAN KASPER

Associate

Megan Kasper is a corporate associate at Hancock Daniel and works at the firm's Richmond office. Prior to joining Hancock Daniel, Megan served as an Assistant Attorney General at the Virginia Office of the Attorney General and represented state employees in civil suits brought in state and federal court. As a litigator, Megan was passionate about helping clients navigate the legal system.

Now, as a corporate associate at Hancock Daniel, she is passionate about helping clients navigate complex regulatory issues. "Healthcare organizations have to abide by many regulations that can rapidly change. I am eager to help clients understand those regulations and changes." Megan earned a Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University in 2016 and earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Richmond School of Law in 2022. Between undergraduate school and law school, she worked as a paralegal at a law firm in Washington, D.C.
