

RAMESH MURTHY

Partner

For Ramesh, assisting clients with employee management in this climate is an exciting challenge. With his 33 years of experience, he brings perspective and a measured approach that has been very successful.

"Although the challenges are numerous and varied, a steady hand can produce common sense solutions." Ramesh takes great pride in assisting clients as they navigate the human resource landscape.

Whether a client's issues involve the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Fair Labor Standards, Act, Title VII, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, or even issues pertaining to workplace injuries, they are all familiar to Ramesh. He has practiced in these fields for his entire career.

Ramesh has been recognized by his peers for the quality of his representation. He has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America annually since 2006.

Ramesh is no stranger to the healthcare community as he is the son of a retired OB/GYN. His oldest sister is a pharmacist and his younger sister is a pediatric dentist. He is the product of the medical community in which he was raised and understands the challenges of those who work in healthcare.

Practice Areas

Labor & Employment
Risk Management
Workers' Compensation

Licensure

Tennessee
Virginia

Academic Credentials

King College, B.A.
University of Richmond School of Law, J.D.

Contact Information:

851 French Moore Junior, Blvd.
Abingdon, Virginia 24210
rmurthy@hancockdaniel.com