

JENNIFER L. STEVENS

Partner

Jennifer Stevens is a Partner in the firm's Virginia Beach office. The primary focus of her practice is devoted representing and advising healthcare providers and petitioning for guardianship for incapacitated patients. Ms. Stevens also has experienced in assisting professionals under investigation by state agencies, including the Virginia Department of Health Professionals.

While Jennifer Stevens' work as a civil litigator is multifaceted, demanding and highly specialized, she considers herself a service professional. She is a trusted partner and enjoys the challenges of handling complex cases and knowing that, at the end, clients feel they were well-represented. Her decisions and work product are guided by creativity, attention to detail, zealous service, and the responsibility to protect clients' best interests.

Jennifer has defended cases all across Virginia, from as far north as Fairfax, Arlington, Alexandria and Richmond, to more locally in the Hampton Roads area and Eastern Shore, as well as North Carolina.

Associations and Professional Memberships

Virginia State Bar

Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys

Norfolk and Portsmouth Bar Association

American Health Lawyers Association

Career Highlights

Virginia Medical Law Reports' Million Dollar Verdicts (2018)

Virginia Medical Law Reports' Million Dollar Verdicts (2019)

Virginia Beach Circuit Court Judicial Law Clerk

Practice Areas

Medical Malpractice Defense

Guardianship & Conservatorship

Medical Malpractice — Long-Term Care/Assisted Living Facility

Dental Malpractice

Risk Management

Defense Department of Health Board Complaints

General Tort, Insurance, and Product Liability Defense

Licensure

Virginia

Academic Credentials

Old Dominion University, B.S., summa cum laude

Wake Forest University
School of Law, J.D.

Wake Forest Law Review